About Me

I'm Sebastian, an 18-year-old frontend developer based in Poland. Passionate about web development, I embarked on this journey last year and have since dedicated myself to continuous learning. Fluent in both English and Polish, I bring a unique perspective shaped by my 12 years living in Scotland.

Skills

Programming Languages: HTML, CSS, JavaScript, TypeScript - (Basics),

Frameworks: React JS

Other: Responsive Design, APIs. Git - (Basics),

I have honed my skills through dedicated courses, YouTube, and extensive research. Currently immersed in the ongoing learning process of TypeScript, I have already gained a good understanding of its principles. With strategic plans in place, I aim to continually enhance my expertise. My goal is to explore additional libraries and frameworks, aspiring to evolve into a more proficient and efficient developer.

Projects
